

Pinal County 4-H Advisory Council:

This committee is comprised of seven individuals who represent various 4-H youth development areas that Pinal County 4-H serves. Members represent school districts, businesses, 4-H club programs, 4-H alumni interests, youth perspectives and the Cooperative Extension Board. This committee gives guidance to the Cooperative Extension office on programming related to 4-H youth development. The committee meets bi-annually.