Motivational Tips to Keep Up with Walking and Entering Miles

- Remember that the team’s success is everyone’s success.
- Organize a group walk; group walks are very enjoyable since you can chat with your team members while walking. On the weekends might work better.
- Set up an evening to play something: maybe soccer, basketball, football.
- What about hiking and a picnic at the end.
- A dancing party will also put some extra miles to your group.
